Message: OHP Standard Reservation List drawings resumed this month according to the following schedule:

- On October 12, 1,000 names were randomly selected;
- Selection letters and OHP 7210R applications will be mailed to these individuals on October 26;
- Those randomly selected will have until December 10 to establish a date of request in order to be considered OHP Reservation List Applicants.

No drawings are planned for November, December or January, but a drawing of 1,000 is planned for February 12, 2013.

Processing OHP Standard Applications:

- Local offices are responsible for determining eligibility for randomly selected applicants with companion cases;
- The Statewide Processing Center (5503) will determine eligibility for applicants not having DHS companion cases;
- Applicants over age 60 should be forwarded to appropriate APD offices.

For more information about Reservation List and OHP Standard application processing, please see the Reservation List training material.
